THE LITTLE CHAPEL

Intimate and romantic, the little Chapel seats up to 10 guests in 6 small pews. Side lanterns and tray lighting add a soft ambience to the rich wooden interiors and cathedral ceiling. Lush hunter green carpeting adorns the entire chapel floor. The aisle leads to a white latticed arch decorated with magnificent silk magnolias and ivy garlands. A variety of lush silk ferns provides a lovely backdrop for the brass candelabra and elegant white candles. Located in the office building, the Little Chapel is the favorite choice of couples with no guests or a small number of guests.

WEDDING CEREMONY

Opening Statement

Greetings in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. ____ & _____, this is a special event in which the two of you declare before God that you have chosen each other.

It is an occasion which is both solemn, as we reflect on the seriousness of your decision, and festive, as we share your joy.

We are witnessing an important event in your lives.

This wedding is based on the relationship which you share, and on the covenant you are about to make.

We ask God's blessings on this covenant as we affirm your love for each other.

Charge to the Couple

____ & _____, I call to your attention the seriousness of the decision which you have made and the covenant you are about to declare.

Be very clear that your marriage is dependent upon your willingness to be faithful to each other and faithful to the covenant you are making before God.

Unfaithfulness in either is a betrayal of your covenant.

Constant and continuous obedience to your vow will result in a marriage which will be blessed, a home which will be a place of peace, and a relationship in which you both grow in love.

Declaration of Consent

____, will you have this woman to be your wedded wife, to live together in the holy estate of matrimony?

Will you love her, comfort her, honor and keep her in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, keep you only unto her, so long as you both shall live? [Answer: I will.]

____, will you have this man to be your wedded husband, to live together in the holy estate of matrimony?

Will you love him, comfort him, honor and keep him in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, keep you only unto him, so long as you both shall live? [Answer: I will.]

Scripture Lesson

Love is patient and kind; it is not jealous or boastful; it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right. Love bears all things, endures all things. Love never ends. I Corinthians 13: 4-8

Exchange of Vows

I, _____, take thee, _____ to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part.

I, _____, take thee, _____ to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part.

Presentation of Rings

The wedding ring becomes an enduring symbol of the promises which have been made. Your wedding rings will be a reminder to both of you of the vows you have shared today and a witness to all the world of your commitment in marriage. Your rings are a never ending circle which symbolizes your eternal love for each other. As a symbol of your love for and commitment to _____, place the ring on her hand. As a symbol of your love for and commitment to _____, place the ring on his hand.

Wedding Prayer

Heavenly Father, we give thanks for the moment that brings _____ & _____ together in marriage. We recognize with thanksgiving the journeys that have brought them to this time, and we celebrate with them the hopes they hold for their life together. We ask your blessings upon them, to sustain them through the difficult and uncertain times that come to every relationship. We pray that they may continue to find in each other resources which will nurture their marriage. May they continue to grow together and may their love for one another deepen with the passing years. All this we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Blessings

Go into the world and fulfill your lives. Hold fast your ideals. Give to one another new experiences of joy. Challenge one another that you may grow. May the love you hold for each other continue to mature. May your life together be a source of strength and inspiration to your family, your friends, and the world around you.

Declaration of Marriage

In consideration of the vows you have exchanged and your expression of love for each other, I now declare you husband and wife. You may kiss the bride.

Frequently Asked Questions

Frequently Asked Last Minute Questions

Please review the following questions and answers before you arrive for your wedding.

- What time should we arrive? One hour is allowed for a single ceremony. Two hours are allowed for a ceremony with reception. If your reserved time is 2:00 – 3:00, you should arrive at 2:00 and be out before 3:00 for the next ceremony. If you arrive dressed, we will begin on the hour. If you need to change, we will begin when you are dressed. Brides generally arrive with their hair, makeup, and nails done; slipping into their wedding attire should not take more than 15 minutes.
- Where do we park? Parking is available next to the chapel.
- Do we have a rehearsal? No, but directions and adequate prompts are given prior to the ceremony.
- Can we bring cameras? No cameras (still, digital, or video) are allowed at any time inside any building of the Alpine Wedding Chapel. Outdoor photography may be done before & after your reserved time.
- Do attendants, children, and babies count as guests? Other than the bride and the groom, all men, women, infants, and other children count as guests.
- If I arrange a carriage, what time shall I tell the carriage to pick us up after the ceremony? 15 minutes before the end of your scheduled time to ensure that we are able to take pictures of your leaving on a carriage.
- Where do attendants dress before the ceremony? Attendants and all other guests should arrive dressed for the ceremony. Small dressing rooms are provided for only the bride and groom.
- Who can give the bride away? The bride's father or other adult representative of the bride's father. It is inappropriate for children to give their mother away; however, occasionally, an older child escorts his mother down the aisle.
- Can we have a champagne toast? No, we do not have a liquor license and there is a brown bag ordinance in Helen that prevents any spirits from being served or consumed on our premises.
- Can we have attendants? Witnesses are no longer required in Georgia. But, if you wish, you may have attendants in the Garden Room or Chapel Ceremonies within reason. A maximum of 5 (2 on each side + Father) is allowed in the Garden Room and 7 (3 on each side + Father) in the Chapel.

No attendants are allowed in the Little Chapel; it is too small.

- Do you have a place for the guest book? A bride may bring a guest book if she wishes. The desk in the foyer of the office building may be used if the ceremony is in the Little Chapel or Garden Room. A brass guest registry stand is provided in the Chapel.
- Do you box up leftover food from the reception? Food is always plentiful. Only leftover cake, if any, is boxed up for the bride & groom. As with any other buffet, all other food remains the property of the person who prepared it and is not boxed up as a "doggie bag".
- Do we need to provide ushers and servers? No, no ushers or servers are required.
- Can we bring our own minister? No, we do not allow visiting ministers to be in charge of the ceremony. However, if he/she wishes to offer a prayer, this would be welcomed.
- Can we keep the flowers (bouquets & boutonnieres) that you provide? No, we have flowers for bride & groom to use here only.
- Can my flower girl use real flower petals? No, they may stain the carpet; silk petals are required.
- Can the florist deliver my fresh flowers? No, we are only open by appointment and may not be open to receive them. Further, we have no space to store such items.
- Can I provide my own decorations? No, time is not allowed for exchanging decorations.
- If I bring non-food items (cake topper, toasting glasses, napkins, etc.) for the reception, when do I bring them? We provide these items, but if you want to use your own, bring them at the time of the wedding and have them opened and ready for immediate use.
- Can I choose my own music? You may bring 1 or 2 love songs on CD. All other music is traditional music appropriate for a lovely wedding and is provided for your enjoyment.
- How long can we wait on guests or wedding party members who are late? Not more than 15 minutes.
- What special provisions are made for small children? The Chapel is not designed for children. If, however, a child attends, he/she should be very carefully supervised & disciplined by a responsible adult assigned to him/her to ensure the reverence & dignity of the occasion. All persons are expected to behave respectfully and maturely while attending weddings & receptions at the chapel.
- What is the ceremony like? We perform only non-denominational, Christian ceremonies. This covenant ceremony ensures the dignity and spirituality of the event. See a copy of this ceremony on our website. Please do not ask us to omit references to God, Jesus, death, eternity, forever, etc.
